FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

President's Message:

Members:

It is time to define ourselves as leaders, and as Thomas Jefferson once said, "Do you want to know who you are? Don't ask. Act! Action will delineate and define you." This year is set to be one of the most successful years in California FBLA history and all of that is thanks to you. This summer in San Antonio, we proved to the country that we are the most successful state. That is thanks to you, our members, who took home more awards than the members of any other state. We started our year off Pioneering Possibilities with invigorating Officer and Adviser Training (OAT) Days throughout the state, where you, the dedicated members and officers of California FBLA, showed off your leadership skills. I am proud to serve as your state President, and I am thankful for your trust and support. This year, the State Officer Team and I are not working to lead California by ourselves, but instead to provide the support and help to our members, who are the true leaders and trailblazers of our organization. We have set forth a plan of membership outreach, communication, and growth that will allow our members to once again, define themselves as the preeminent leaders in the Future Business Leaders of America Organization. Your State Officer team and I are open to help and espouse you in any way possible, so please, reach out to any one of us. Let's continue to define ourselves as leaders, when we meet this fall for the Leadership Development Institutes, I'll see you there!

Humbly,
Cameron Khansarinia

Plan of Action and Goals:

This year a higher emphasis will be placed on state projects throughout California. Your state officers have updated every project to ensure that every member will be able to participate regardless of level.

Completing a project will grant members recognition at their respective conferences on the local, state, and national level. All members are encouraged to reach out to their section and state officers for assistance in starting and maintaining a chapter.

Good luck, and let us Pioneer Possibilities together!
